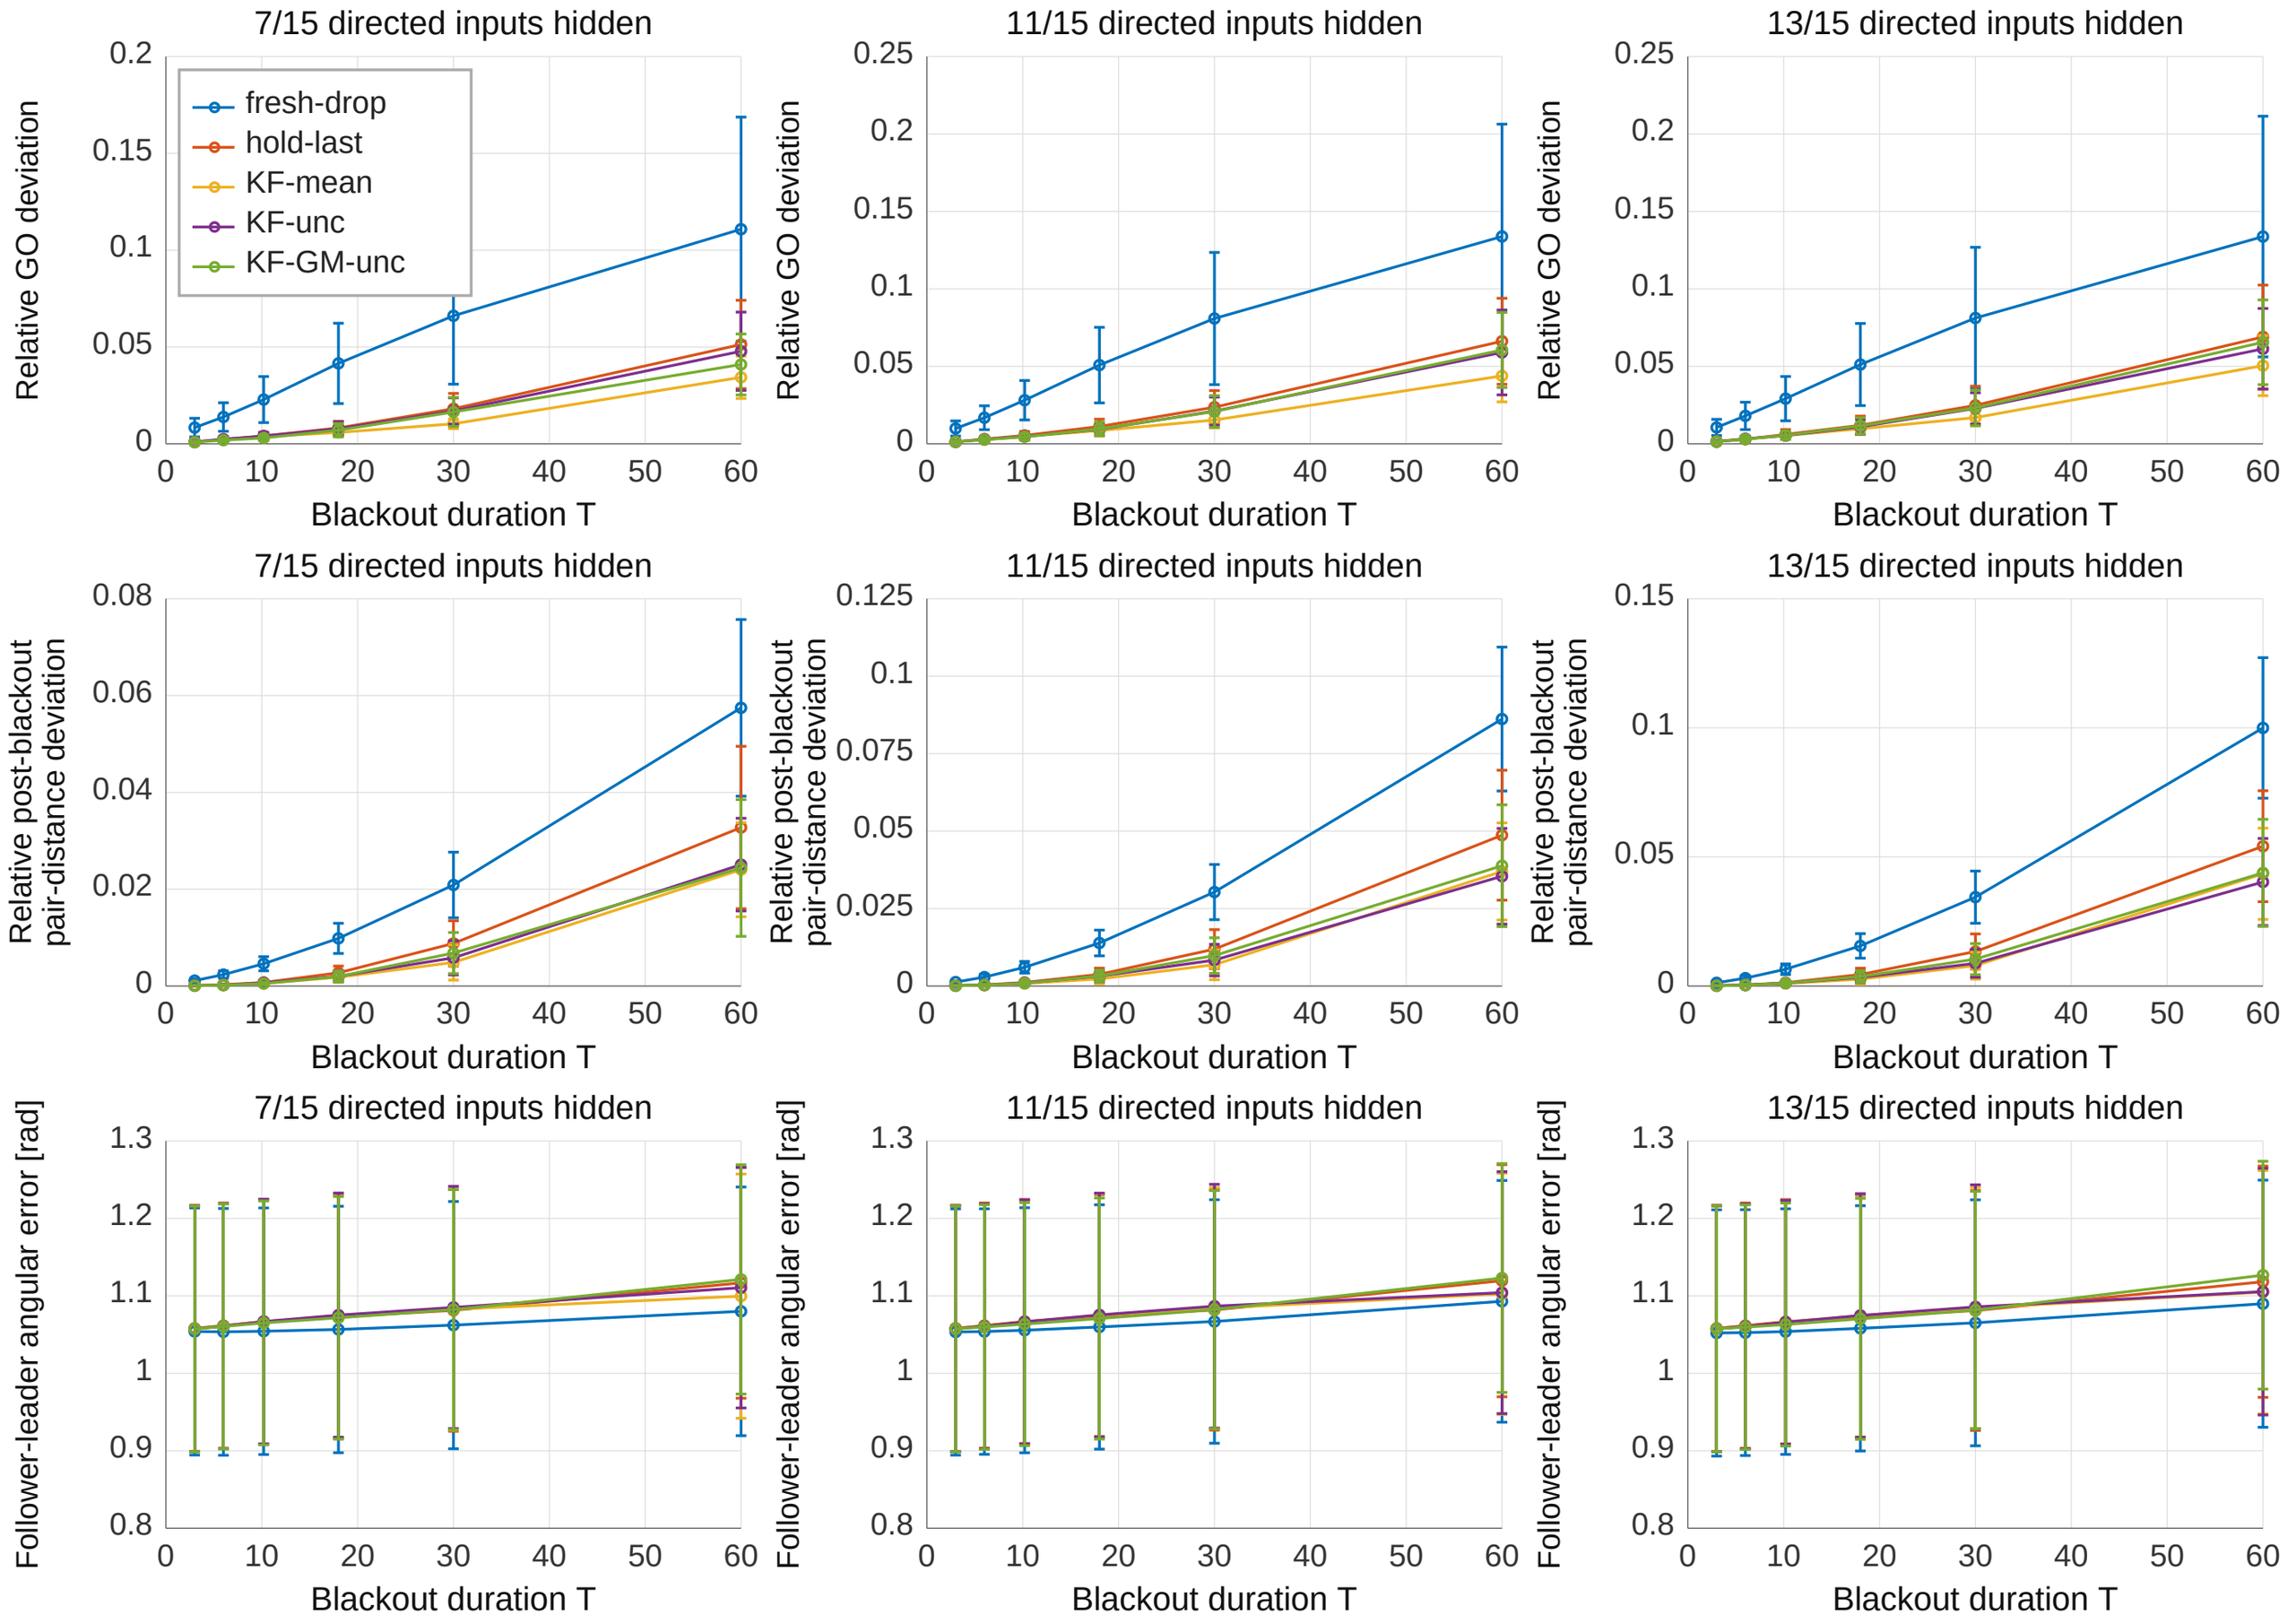
Controlled-turn occlusion: relative degradation from paired no-occlusion control



Turn begins 20 steps (6 model-time units) before blackout; leaders receive the same cue in control and all branches.